

One school many languages:
bridging research and school practice through plurilingual education

International conference on multilingualism in plurilingual primary and secondary education

4th – 6th December 2023

Eurac Research, Drususallee 1, Bolzano/ Bozen
On site, only

Program

WELCOME GREETINGS	Roland Psenner , President Eurac Research Andrea Abel , Head of the Institute for Applied Linguistics of Eurac Research
KEYNOTES	Cecilia Andorno , Università di Torino (Italy), Dipartimento di Studi Umanistici Gabriela Meier , University of Exeter (United Kingdom), School of Education Eva Vetter , Universität Wien, Zentrum für Lehrer*innenbildung At the conference, presentations can be given in German, Italian or English. Registration is mandatory for conference participants, to register use the following link: https://sms-project.eurac.edu/conference/?lang=de Conference fee 70€. Registration closes on 17th November Cancellation requests received after the 6th November will be refunded 50% of the conference fee
ROUND TABLE 5th December 2023 16:30h Eurac Research	Challenges and opportunities of introducing plurilingual approaches in contexts where old and new forms of multilingualism coexist. Discussions will be held in German and Italian without simultaneous translation

The conference is the closing event of the “One school, many languages/ Sprachenvielfalt macht Schule – SMS 2.0” project hosted by the Eurac Research Institute for Applied Linguistics. The project examines how multilingualism is perceived, dealt with and leveraged in schools.
More info here: <https://sms-project.eurac.edu/>

Information:

Eurac Research Institute for Applied Linguistics
T: +39 0471 055 100
sms.info@eurac.edu